the truth in the case?"

Accounting for his support by Democrats, Mr. Loriturer declared no Republican ever had been closer to them then he had. He dealared a majority of the Democrats of that State would vote for a protective tariff as against a tariff for revenue only. He said the tariff question had been brought in "to cover up the Republican vote for Lea in Tennessee; to make you forget it."

Nearly all the Illingia Democrate was Nearly all the Illinois Democrats who voted for him (Lorinar) were his personal friends, he declared, while the Republicans who voted for Lea in Tennasee, he said, "were delivered to him by the leaders of the Republican organization."

Probably Mortally Wounded in Running Fight With Police Chief

[Special to The Times-Disputch.] Basic, Va., July 12.—A fruit tree agent named T. B. Speight, of Connec-

agent named T. B. Speight, of Connecticut, probably was mortally wounded in a running fisht with Chief of Police Brown this afternoon about 5 o'clock. The trouble grew out of a discussion between Speight and a man named Gibson, in West Waynesbare, over trult trees. Gibson ordered Speight off his pince and followed him for some distance.

Speight fired several times at Gibson, and later Policeman Brown joined in the chase. Speight also shot at Brown several times. Brown returned the fire, one builet taking effect in Speight's side and one in the leg just above the knee. Speight was brought to fall, and after an examination by Drs. Richardson and Patterson, was hurried to the University Hospital, at Charlottesville, on the 7:45 train, for treatment,
